JOB DESCRIPTION

As part of LP4Y Alliance Communication team, you will:

- Be the guardian of LP4Y's image on all media and communication supports.
- Support the teams based in all LP4Y countries (Bangladesh, Belgium, England, France, India, Indonesia, Lebanon, Luxembourg, Myanmar, Nepal, The Philippines, USA) regarding their communication needs (create templates, coordinate projects)
- Define and manage the communication strategy
- Manage the social media
- Design and update the various websites
- Create various internal and external communication supports (print and digital) such as the annual report, newsletters, leaflets, articles, vidéos.
- Build and manage communication campaigns following LP4Y event annual calendar (day for women's rights, recruitment campaign, Youth Inclusion International Forum, etc.) including the Youth as often as possible

Joining LP4Y Alliance Communication team enables you to develop many skills in communication: the team is small, so you will work on your projects from beginning to end, sometimes starting from scratch! This position enables you to work with members of LP4Y based in all the countries, including the Youth. It is the perfect position if you are looking to gain responsibilities and find a balance between teamwork and autonomy.
